Easy dive, hard won battle

88m hands and feet!!

Wiliam is back, with a new world record in CNF (Constant No Fins category). His dive to 88m lasted 3:30. After the initial speed bumps and a lot of stress early in the competition William found his form on the second to last day of the event to register his 7th world record and 5th in this, his specialty discipline

More photos and the dive profile will be uploaded shortly...
