light blue are national records, dark blue are world records

Today's world record in Free Immersion by Herbert Nitsch means he has maximum points in FIM and CWT. However he still has to do a deep CNF dive in order to beat William Trubridge in the Suunto Dive-Off. Meanwhile William will be looking to add meters to his depth in any of the disciplines in order to require a bigger CNF performance from Herbert. The last two days promise suspenseful diving as these two competitors go to the wire in an attempt to be crowned the best all-round freediver.
