

VERTICAL BLUE 2011 - Inlist

It has been a while coming, but we can finally announce the in-list for Vertical Blue 2011. This will be the 4th edition of the "world's premier freediving event" (not our words!), and for the first time in its history (and possibly in the history of freediving competitions), we will have a balanced quota of male and female competitors!

The competition will take place between April 8-18, at Dean's Blue Hole, Bahamas. The 11th and 15th will be rest days from diving.

14 nations will be represented by 18 athletes (9 male, 9 females) There are 8 new competitors to Vertical Blue. Almost everyone in the list is, or has been a national record holder, and there are 4 current or ex-world record holders.

We will be providing news about this event both here and (probably more frequently) on the Facebook Vertical Blue page <https://www.facebook.com/verticalblue>.

Stay tuned!

Will Brittany ever participate at a competition? I mean... She does freedive, doesn't she? I wonder how she'd perform!
Cheers and save dives!
